Dear Fernand,

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to view your website. I have enjoyed it thoroughly. From the recipes and pictures to your insightful messages filled with wisdom. The website is creative, thoughtful and genuine! My thoughts and prayers are with you on your "desert journey". I know that God uses "all things" together for good for those who love Him and are called according to His purposes. It looks like you have found a treasure! You are an inspiration. Please keep us abreast of your discoveries! All my best to you and your family.

Since I sent the first e-mail, I've had time to read further along on your website and I now must admit I may have been a bit hasty in the critique--please accept this as an apology--M. Craig Colwart

P.S. Aline luv's the site...

Way cool website, cousin-in-law---but my Jesuit education requires me to offer this one minor critique--why do you feel obligated to exclude non-Christians in this website otherwise based on hope and good nature? --I'm just saying inclusion always outweighs exclusion--

Dear Fernand,

Thank you so much for sharing this with me, it's very impressive. I love your core mission and all it stands for. I'm glad to see that you have taken a proactive approach to your situation. As soon as I get the green light on my ministry location, I will call you and take you up on your offer to help me paint. I would love to meet with you and perhaps share my vision with you and see if it's something that you may want to get involved in. I will call you soon! Stay blessed and keep up the good work.

Love and Blessings,

Hi Fernand, I am still at Larry's in Springfield and will be leaving tomorrow. WOW, I LOVE this website. How cool. CONGRATULATIONS! on your great logo/logos.

It was great to see it on the Tshirt, etc. You are really coming up with some great ideas. I'm proud of you. I haven't read your resume yet, but will when I get home.

Dear Fernand, Quoting from my book: "Amen, Amen, I say to you: You are SO right."

That was a great e-mail and indeed, the word Social Justice has been skewed. Your new phrase, Social Relevance is much better. Wouldn't it be nice if we could get back to the way things should be just by changing the name to reflect proper thinking. Well, if anyone could do it, you could. I'll campaign for you any time. What office do you want to run for? (That's not such a bad idea.)

So, your website is one month old today. In ways, it seems like 3 or 4 months since you gave birth.

Hi Tib!

What a lovely surprise to hear from you!

I am surprised that your talents have not been swooped up yet, but you may have a new career on the horizon. The Website you created is really cool! Who is the baby with the lamb chop sock puppet? Did you forget to tell me something?

As far as your testimonial section, I thought I would be able to leave comments about what a cool and groovy guy you are...but alas, I could not.

How many horses do you have now? I drove past your house last week and honked, but you did not come out. I was disappointed, but at 45 miles per hour, I understand.

Ok, I also noticed that you are using the "Just Ask Tib" title. Good Job!

Take care and keep me up to date on what's up with you and the fam.

Yours truly,
