

Tib On Perseverance

*Deus Unus
Provideret*

Never give up when pursuing good and holy ventures. Your value as a human being lies in the fact that God has made you unique among all of creation to be a blessing and to be of service to those around you. Seek the Kingdom of God.

Temper your suffering with the knowledge that the evil around you will either succumb to sincere repentance or self destruct. Accept the “crosses you bear” in life as a temporary means of bringing your soul closer to fulfillment, with ultimate fulfillment being its perfect union with the “Image and Likeness” from which it has been fashioned.

Do your part to bring the evil in this world to a hasty demise. Live and love and be of good cheer. Never give up – claim your victory!!
